

GRAND MASTER'S DECISION ON PROFICIENCIES

On December 3rd a letter and Grand Master's Decision 2007-01 was mailed to the Worshipful Master of each lodge. Each Worshipful Master should present the Decision to his Lodge.

This Grand Master issued this Decision concerning what actions are to be taken for those brothers who as candidates of the One Day Class, All the Way or Grand Master's Classes have not completed their proficiencies in at least the first two degrees.

Grand Master Nielsen stated "I believe this proficiency delinquency was the result of inattention by the Grand Lodge, the lodge and the candidate. All three bear some of the responsibility for this regrettable situation and therefore all three should work toward a positive resolution."

By this Decision the Grand Master is providing the guidance and direction that many brothers have been requesting from the Grand Master. MW Bro. Nielsen said "I hope that your lodge will give guidance and assistance to the brothers needing to complete their proficiencies to bring them up to compliance. Lastly I hope the brother needing to complete their proficiencies will rise to the challenge of completing their Masonic education in the degrees."

In presenting this Decision Grand Master Nielsen stated "I believe this Decision sets a definitive benchmark for resolving these delinquencies. The executive summary of the Decision is on the first page. I am directing all Worshipful Masters to have at least the first page of the Decision read in open lodge at a stated meeting. "

The Grand Lodge officers are available to help lodges in clearing up these delinquencies. If you have any questions concerning the implementation of the Decision, please let us know.

ANNUAL RETURN WORK PACKAGES

The 2007 Annual Return Work packages have been mailed to the Secretary of each lodge. The package included a letter from the Grand Treasurer, Instruction Book and three (3) Annual Return work sheets. This year three work sheets were included at the request of many Secretaries, one for their initial draft, one for their records and a clean copy for Grand Lodge. Remember all Annual Returns are due back to Grand Lodge prior to 15 March 2008.

My Brethren, the roll of the workmen has been called, and one more Master Mason has not answered to his name, He has laid down the working tools of the Craft and with them he has left that mortal part for which he no longer has use. His labors here below have taught him to divest his heart and conscience of the vices and superfluities of life, thereby fitting his mind as a living stone for that spiritual building—that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Strengthened in his labors here by faith in God, and, confident of expectation of immortality, he has sought admission to the Celestial Lodge above.

RESOLUTION FORMAT RESOLUTION DRAFTING INSTRUCTIONS

These instructions provide the accepted protocol on formatting and styling to be used in drafting resolutions for Grand Lodge legislation for its deliberation at annual communications. Resolutions not submitted in accordance with these instructions will be returned to the submitting lodge for re-drafting, or reformatting by the Jurisprudence Committee.

The formatting and drafting requirements are as follows:

1. The heading is "Resolution No._____."
2. A resolution may only contain one subject which is clearly stated in its title.
3. The title of the resolution is placed under the heading with a double spaced separation. The title must state concisely what the resolution proposes to do. If the resolution proposes amending a section of the Constitution or the Code, the section must be stated in the title.
4. The resolution may not contain any recitals or whereas clauses within the resolution. A detailed argument and explanation for the resolution may be set forth on a separate page attached to the resolution, which is entitled "Proponent's Explanation of Resolution for [title of Resolution]. The proponent's explanation may not exceed one page, single spaced, with no smaller than 11 point type. It may be written in outline or narrative form. It is recommended that the explanation briefly explain the present situation or status quo and should explain how the proposed resolution improves or corrects the present situation. If the explanation exceeds one page in length, additional pages beyond the first page will not be sent out to the lodges with the resolution and will be destroyed.
5. The resolution portion must read "Be it resolved that:" Each amended section will be in a sequentially numbered paragraph that reads: "Section____of the [Constitution or Code] be amended as follows:" Each new section will likewise be in a sequentially numbered paragraph that reads: "New Section of the [Constitution or Code] be enacted as follows:"
6. If a section is proposed to be amended, the entire section must be included in the body of the resolution. Additions of text to a section are shown by underline and if desired may be also in bold font or italicized. In any case additions must be underlined. Deletions of text are shown by strikethrough. Either single or double strikethrough may be used, though single is preferable. Be sure to use underlines for added punctuation and strikethroughs to delete unnecessary punctuation. Also note that underlines and strikethroughs are used to add or delete paragraph letters or numbers

7. When a new section is proposed, even though a new number may be proposed for the section, the Grand Secretary, as codifier, will assign a number to the section.
8. When a section is amended or a new section is proposed, check other sections in both the Code and Constitution that be affected by the amendment or new section. These sections must be amended in the resolution by setting forth the entire section, with additions by underline and deletions by strikethrough.

These Resolution Drafting Instructions were adopted 6 December 2003, by order of the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Montana, and are for use in submission of resolutions at the 2008 Annual Communication. Please include both a paper copy and an electronic copy of proposed legislation.
